

Minimum Standards for New York's Public Libraries

The New York State Library is committed to improving public library services and works with libraries, library systems, trustees and other library advocates to help assure equivalent levels of access to library services and resources through Minimum Standards for Public Libraries in New York State.

All public and association libraries in New York State must meet 11 minimum standards of service according to Section 90.2 of the Regulations of the Commissioner of Education. These standards support improved public library services for the people of New York and are intended to:

- promote quality local public library service in all communities within New York State,
- empower libraries to strengthen community relations and promote public support for quality library services, and
- support a culture of transparency, accountability, and continuous improvement.

New York's 11 Minimum Standards for Public Libraries

- (1) The library is governed by board-approved written bylaws which outline the responsibilities and procedures of the library board of trustees;
- (2) The library has a board-approved, written long-range plan of service;
- (3) The library presents an annual report to the community on the library's progress in meeting its goals and objectives;
- (4) The library has board-approved written policies for its operation;
- (5) The library presents annually to appropriate funding agencies a written board-approved budget which would enable the library to meet or exceed these standards and to carry out its long-range plan of service;
- (6) The library periodically evaluates the effectiveness of the library's collection and services in meeting community needs;
- (7) The library is open the following scheduled hours:

When Must a Library Meet the Minimum Standards?

All of the minimum standards for public libraries must be met at the time of application for a library charter or registration. Education Law requires that a library be chartered and registered in order to legally receive local and State funds. See Chartering a Public Library in New York State for further information.

What if a Library Cannot Meet Minimum Standards?

If a library cannot meet one or more of the minimum standards, the director or board president should contact the library system to discuss available options. Education Law and Commissioner's Regulations provide a process for libraries that cannot meet a particular standard because of circumstances beyond the library board's control.

How do Public Library Systems and the State Library Help Libraries Meet the Minimum Standards?

The Public Library System Directors Organization (PULISDO) and the New York State Library work together in a strong partnership to help public and association libraries meet the minimum standards. See Helpful Information for Meeting Minimum Public Library Standards for further information.
